Scrums are shifting to 1 week increments. This meeans the next scrum will be the Implement and Testing phases only (coding!). Focus on our requirements that relate to customer requirements.
What will be completed in the next Scrum:

- Cindy:

  1. user controllers: add/edit
  2. corresponding views

- Chaylo:

  1. implement forum db model
  2. define/add use cases / associations
  3. forum controller-list controller
  4. corresponding controllers/views

- Zeke:

  1. security and calendar controllers - basic page population from database
  2. decide on the relation between Project Management and Calendar controllers (merge?). Implement this in code
  3. calendar forms: add event
  4. corresponding controllers/views

- Abhay:

  1. form to add messages (to database table)
  2. Abhay, we had conversations on how to proceed with various parts of the the messaging system. Colby and Abhay should sit down sometime early next week and brainstorm together on possible subsystems (Moday @ 5pm via Skype?)
  3. corresponding controllers/views

- Alex:

  1. delete/add files form
  2. corresponding controllers/views

- Scott:

  1. refine Page model and data members
  2. sort out css nicely
  3. refine formatting/indentation of html in the php
  4. corresponding controllers/views

- Brett:

  1. user / group profile page views working. Talk layouts with Scott to make homogeneous layout for all users/groups.
  2. work on database, start on add/edit/delete controllers

- Leah:

  1. group controllers: add/edit
  2. corresponding views

- Tim:

  1. admin controller: navigation to admin controllers (adding/editing/deleting: users (Cindy), groups (Leah), pages (Brett))
  2. Stub out and start any other admin controllers
  3. corresponding views

- Colby:

  1. admin controller: see Tim
  2. Find a final place for sessions to be loaded, preferably in the Page model
  3. Finalize login method
